FROM NESHAMINY
H. S. ON THURSDAY*Program Will Again Be Held on Lawn of School at Langhorne*DATE IS JUNE 15TH*Dr. Quincy Rohrbach, President of Kutztown Teachers' College, to Speak

LANGHORNE, June 8—Dr. Quincy Rohrbach, president of State Teachers' College, Kutztown, has been secured as the speaker for commencement program of Neshaminy high school. The graduation exercises will again be held on the school lawn, the date being Thursday, June 15th, and the hour six p. m.

The chorus and band of the high school will have a share in the program. The chorus being directed by Miss Jeanne Burtis, and the band by Stanley Howell.

Sixty-four will be presented with diplomas. It is announced by Dr. Oliver Heckman, superintendent of Neshaminy district schools. Dr. Heckman will present the graduates to Kenneth Conly, of Pennell, president of the board of directors, who in turn will award the diplomas. Dr. Heckman will also announce a number of awards and give out certificates and medals to those meriting such.

Several student speakers are also listed for that evening, this group being inclusive of: Joan Herrmann, Barbara Rion, Arlene Seals, Grace VanVossen, Joan Brostrom and Ann Lindenfeller. This sextet will develop the theme "Youth Responsibilities."

Fairmount Park Guards To Drill At School Affair

ANDALUSIA, June 8—A day of fun for young and old a Pen Ryn Episcopal School's circus Saturday, will be enhanced by a mounted drill presented by Fairmount Park Guards, well-known for their beautiful mounts and superb horsemanship.

The annual affair will begin at one o'clock with a parade around the school grounds led by the Bensalem High School band. Children in a myriad of costumes will brighten the event in Mardi Gras style, while the end of the march will signal the opening of more than a dozen booths.

Admission to Pen Ryn School grounds on State Road, will be free and no charge will be made for parking.

A real circus day atmosphere will prevail from the hot pop, soda and "dogs" to performing horses, gaily decorated booths and games for youngsters and adults.

Three motion picture shows will divide time with pony rides and a carousel to attract the youngsters. "There will be no need to rush home to prepare dinner," said Mrs. Lily Urian, chairman of the circus, "for a delicious dinner will be served beginning at five o'clock. Our motto this year is, 'Come early and stay late'."

Card reading, roving artists and photographers and other midway features will keep the crowds interested.

Supplement extraordinary is the performance of the Park Guard troop which will augment the horse show and exhibit.

Pen Ryn extends a welcome to youngsters from the area to dress up in costume and join the parade—then make a day of it on the grounds.

Mrs. Theodore Walser Is To Address Bucks W.I.L.P.F.

NEW HOPE, June 8—Lower Bucks Co. Branch of Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, will have as its speaker on Monday next, Mrs. Theodore Walser, of New York, N. Y., field representative of the W.I.L.P.F., and an accredited observer to the United Nations.

The meeting is to take place at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fred Klett, Aquetong road, here, it being preceded by a box luncheon at 12:30.

Mrs. Walser was for many years a resident of Japan. She was the daughter of an American exporter. Graduated from Smith College she returned to Japan in 1916 with her husband, Dr. Walser, under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, the two opening a student center in Tokyo.

She has taught in three large women's colleges in Japan, was tutor to the children of the aunt of the Emperor; was head of the industrial work of the Door of Hope Settlement in Tokyo; and was president of Smith College Club of Japan.

HERE AND THERE IN BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS*Activities of Interest To
All In The Various Communities*GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Elmer O. Strouse, chairman of building committee of Plumsteadville Fire Co., informed the 32 members at Monday evening's meeting that construction of a 24-foot addition in the rear of the fire house is expected to start within a week.

The enlargement of the fire house became necessary because of additional equipment, including a new pump, which, according to the chief engineer, Darwin Niece, was put into service since the last meeting.

Presenting his report, Chief Walter D. Rush announced the company responded to two calls during the past month. It was called on May 14 to assist Point Pleasant Fire Company in fighting a barn fire on the farm of Arthur Brothers, a short distance north of Carversville. The fire is said to have been caused by burning brush too close to the barn.

Two business women, Mrs. Robert D. Figuera, and Mrs. Katharine Early, Doylestown, were installed as members of the Soroptimist Club, of Bucks County, Monday evening when 25 club women were in attendance.

President Mrs. Emma P. Stover announced that a former past president, Katherine Keane, has resigned because she has moved out of the territory.

Birthday anniversaries were celebrated.

GRADUATE AT COLLEGE

Lane A. Weller, formerly of 201 Mulberry street, Bristol, graduated from Dickinson College at its 177th commencement on June 4. Others in the class from the vicinity were James M. Kytte, Jr., Bristol, R. D. 2, and Robert S. Stackhouse, Morrisville. Stackhouse received the degree of bachelor of science. The others were graduated as bachelors of arts. The class, numbering 245, was the largest in the long history of the college.

Calvary Baptist Sunday School Plans Picnic

Calvary Baptist Sunday School picnic is set for Saturday, it being expected that about 400 will attend the event at Bowman's Hill, Washington Crossing Park.

The four Sunday School buses will be used for transportation, the pupils being "picked up" on the usual routes at the regular Sunday School hours.

Organized games will be part of the recreation program for the various departments.

Each family will provide its own lunch.

URGES 2 OFFICERS
IN SPEEDING CASES*Judge Keller Criticizes Method Used In Making Some Such Arrests*ONE WOMAN GUILTY

DOYLESTOWN, June 8—Judge Hiram H. Keller adjudged two defendants guilty of speeding Tuesday afternoon in appeals taken before the county court, but criticized the method used by State Police in some instances in having but one officer for the prosecution, instead of two testifying as to the alleged excessive speed.

Miss Pauline Annas, of Berks county, who operates a beauty parlor near Allentown, was arrested on March 27 for speeding along the Bethlehem Pike at 65 miles an hour, when she was stopped by an officer from the Quakertown sub-station of State Police—Trooper Jack Griffith. In this instance there were two troopers who made the arrest.

Miss Annas told Judge Keller that she was returning from a funeral in Philadelphia and was hurrying to a dinner to get something to eat because she felt sleepy after being up nearly two nights without sleep.

"There is nothing to do but to adjudge you guilty," Judge Keller remarked, "but the court has some reservations about whether your license be lifted or not; there was no reckless driving in this instance."

Ben D. Spagolio, 56, of Shenandoah, also appeared before Judge Keller on a waived hearing for speeding on the Bethlehem Pike on April 17, about 9 in the morning, at 60 miles per hour.

Spagolio was arrested by Trooper Robert C. Cutney, of the Quakertown sub-station of State Police, who was not accompanied by a

Kitchen Items Arranged
As Gifts At A Shower

Miss Florence Leonard, Farragut avenue, was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower arranged by her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Leonard, Mulberry street, at the latter's home, Tuesday evening. Clues to where the gifts were hidden were attached to pastel colored miniature parasols suspended from the center of the room.

Refreshments were served to: Mrs. Harry A. Thropp, Mrs. John Donigan, Sr., Miss Laurence Trior, Miss Margaret Hutchison, Miss Nancy Eldridge, Trenton, N. J.; Miss Jane Deisroth, Glenside; Mrs. Robert Edwards, Langhorne; Mrs. John Leonard, Sr., Mrs. Edward L. Helwig, Bristol.

Miss Leonard will be married to John Donigan, Jr., of Trenton, on June 23rd.

BRISTOL HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES ROLL UP
SLEEVES TO CARVE CAREERS IN BUSINESS, INDUSTRY, AFTER DOFFING CAPS AND GOWNS

The majority of Tuesday's bumper crop of Bristol high school graduates no sooner doffed their academic caps and gowns than they prepared to roll up their shirt-sleeves and carve out careers for themselves in business and industry.

Nearly 100 of the 134 Bristol high school seniors said that they're saying goodbye to their pencils and books after the commencement and going out into the business world. Many of them don't know exactly yet what they want to do. Others have made plans to become everything from commercial artists, to poultry farmers, to X-ray technicians.

About one out of six will wait until the ink is dry on their high school diplomas before making plans for college.

Most of the expectant college students are from the academic course. West Chester State Teachers College is the goal of Alfred Daniel, Joseph Franceschini and Florence Adams.

Anthony Giabella and Clifford Holgate are planning for Pennsylvania State College next fall; while Joseph Dominik has his sights set on Syracuse. Clarence Moyer is planning to enter Bucknell University. Richard Strauss is heading for Wheaton College, and John Wetherill is making plans for the Temple University Technical Institute, Philadelphia.

Emilie Jane Roos is planning to enter a business school after graduation while Anthony Sottile has plans of becoming a pharmacist. Other academic graduates who are planning to enter college, but who have not yet picked their school, are Frank Rich, Dorothy Bailey, Adelheid Enderlin, Charles Fisher, Howard Grant, Robert Konofal, John Laidacker, Thomas Lewis, Alex Monte, Robert Peet and Joseph Pindar.

Albert Borish plans to start his own business, as does James Morrell. Constance Clapham, another academic, plans to join the Women's Auxiliary Air Force. According to LeRoy Cornell, his immediate plans include getting a job and then getting married.

Margaret Muth intends to become a laboratory worker, while Carol Wisler plans on becoming an X-ray technician. Other academics who are planning to enter industry are Fannie Daughtrey, Jacqueline Gilardi, Robert James, Carl Lindemuth, William Moll, Dolores Neill, Bruce Schleker, Richard Schmidt and Theodore Shrodt.

Most of the recruits for industry will be from the general and industrial courses, according to what the seniors say. Among the graduates

LAWYER EXPLAINS
PART IN BRIDGE DEAL*Says He Urged "Quiet" To Prevent "Racketeering Law Suits"*SAYS DEAL IS LEGAL

NEWARK, June 8—A New York lawyer, testifying as a defense witness in the state's suit to void the $12,400,000 sale of two Burlington bridges, said yesterday that he urged the county bridge commission to keep the deal quiet.

David Wood, of the New York law firm of Wood, King and Dawson, which handled the disputed sale, added that he never doubted the legality or propriety of the transaction.

Wood said he asked the commission to keep the deal a secret to avoid "racketeering law suits." He asserted his belief that no "meritorious law suit" could have resulted because of the legality of the sale.

On cross examination, Wood clashed with former State Attorney General Walter D. Van Riper over Burlington County's right to make any profit on the two spans.

Wood said such a right was protected by law, but when Van Riper asked whether any court had passed on the question, Wood replied he didn't believe the issue had ever been presented.

In his opinion, he stated, the Bridge Commission used its independent judgment in purchasing the bridges and that he believed the transaction had the state's "blessing."

He said he knew the Secretary of State's office in Trenton was kept open late on Oct. 22, 1948, date of the sale, to receive papers concerning the transfer to the county.

Earlier, Milo Wilder, Jr., of Orange, a financial expert, testified that the commission had excellent financial advice in buying the bridges. The insurance executive said he was expressing no opinion on the ethics of the deal.

BUCKS COUNTY IS INTERESTING:Places to Which One Can Motor When the Wanderlust Strikes — Become Acquainted With Historical and Scenic Spots Right Here Close at Home.

The wanderlust that calls Bucks countians to faraway places during vacation time often casts such an uncanny spell that they miss the infinite variety of pleasures abounding in their own big backyard.

The quiet and serene beauty of Bucks county, replete with historical treasures and a variety of vacation spots, offers rich rewards to those who have had enough of crowded highways, exhaust fumes, crowded and sun-baked beaches, and the impersonality of professional vacation resorts.

Vacations should, and can, begin at home.

Aim the family car north some day soon and see for yourself. There, up past Morrisville, along the northern crest of Bucks county, beautiful River road winds its way for more than 40 miles to Heigelsville, located at the county line. The

Kindergarten Enrollment Scheduled June 12 and 13

Enrollment of children for kindergarten for the term 1950-51 will take place on Monday, June 12th, and Tuesday, June 13th, between the hours of 9-12 m., and 1:30-3 p. m., it is announced. This is for children who will be five years old on or before January 31, 1951.

The place for enrollment is Bath street school and Jefferson avenue school.

Parents are asked to enroll their children so that plans for the term can be completed.

PLEADS GUILTY AND IS SENT TO PRISON*Dr. Robert R. Moody, Corn-wells Heights, Given
6 Months to 1 Year*NARCOTICS VIOLATION

DOYLESTOWN, June 8—Dr. Robert R. Moody, 42, Williams ave., Cornwells Heights, who pleaded guilty to obtaining, attempting and procuring narcotics by fraud, was sentenced by Judge Edward G. Blester to serve not less than six months nor more than a year in the County Prison.

Albert R. Bendon, Federal Narcotic Agent, who investigated the crimes, testified that Dr. Moody, an osteopathic physician, wrote 23 prescriptions between April 9 and May 6.

Dr. Moody, who was released March 17 from Lexington, Ky., Federal Hospital, where he underwent a four months' narcotic cure, had agreed and surrendered his narcotic license rights.

He blamed his drug addiction on domestic troubles. He is the father of two children and separated from his wife.

"Many, many people are unhappy, but there are comparatively few who become drug addicts because of their unhappiness," Judge Blester told the physician, who looked much older than his age. He admitted taking dilaudin which is in the same class as morphine.

"It acts as a stimulant and not as a stimulant-depressive which is what alcohol does," said the defendant, who blamed his recurrence for taking drugs because the four months of hospital treatment was not a six-month cure.

Former Bristol Youth Will Attend Jamboree

A former Bristol youth, Jay West, will attend the Boy Scouts of America Jamboree at Valley Forge Park, June 30th to July 6th. West's home is at Key West, Fla., and this is the first time that a Key West Scout has ever attended a national jamboree.

West is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. West, of Florida. He was a Cub Scout in Pack 2, Bristol, it is stated by Scoutmaster Archie Potter, of Key West, before becoming a member of Scout Troop 52 in the southern state three years ago. He lacks but a few merit badges of becoming an Eagle Scout, this placing him as one of the highest ranking Scouts in the Monroe County district there.

Queer Bed-Fellows

(By "The Stroller")
The Bradley Andrey family on Radcliffe street has no fear for the safety of two white chickens, presented to Bradley, Jr., as an Easter gift.

The family's pet dog, a collie, has "adopted" the chickens, and the three pets are inseparable. The dog has long watched over his feathered friends, but a few days ago the family awoke to find that the chickens had mysteriously gotten out of their pen, in spite of the fact there was a protective wire about it.

Investigation proved that the collie had dug a place under the wire, sufficiently large for the chickens to crawl out and thus have freedom of the larger yard with him.

All that is necessary for a "round-up" of chickens is for the family to ask the dog "Where are your chickens?" and the collie goes bounding off to take them in tow.

Eden Granted Temporary Divorce

London—Former British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was granted a temporary divorce today from his attractive socialite wife, the 45-year-old former Beatrice Helen Beckett, on the grounds she deserted him to live in the U. S. and Bermuda. A final decree is expected to be issued within six weeks.

ELECT DIRECTORS
FOR YOUTH CENTER*Residents of Newtown and Vicinity Meet in Council
Rock School*HONOR MR. PEARSON

NEWTOWN, June 8—Residents of Newtown and vicinity meeting Tuesday night at Council Rock high school elected 21 members to the permanent board of directors for the Neshaminy Valley Youth Center, Inc., and honored outgoing president Lawrence Pearson for his work during the first year of the organization by naming him president emeritus.

Robert Sheeran heads the officers on the new board. Mr. Roland Porter is first vice president, Paul Blanshard, Jr., is second vice president, Seymour Goodnoe is treasurer, and Mrs. William Bradley, secretary.

Other members of the board of directors are: Mrs. Joseph Camilla, David Rishel, James D. Burns, Lawrence Hennessy, Mrs. Grace Baker, Alex J. Strathie, Mrs. Alfred Conrad, Mrs. Edna Ringel, Walter Leffert, Mrs. Leroy Nixon and Harry Shields, all representing sponsoring clubs of Newtown which appointed candidates for the board.

Elected from the community at large, in addition to the officers, are Mrs. Robert Cooke, George Otto, Russell Johnson, J. Preston VanArtsdalen and Mrs. William Kenderdine.

Reporting for the finance and fund-raising committees, chairman Stanley Sutton, Jr., announced that 613 families and businesses had contributed more than $23,999 in the past eight months toward a published goal of $25,000 to complete the youth and community center on N. State street.

George Otto, chairman, reported for his property committee that some $14,500 had been spent altogether, "counting supplies purchased and now on hand," and expressed the hope that by the end of June the ladies of the center would be able to plan the interior decorating for the renovated structure. Mr. Otto estimated that the center is 60 per cent completed. He thanked Charles Abba publicly for having drawn the accepted plans, and explained in detail how the work was being done.

FIREMEN'S ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE
MINUS A PARADE*Election To Be Held At Meeting In Langhorne
Friday Evening*MEMORIAL SERVICE*Field Day At Chalfont May Replace The Annual Parade

LANGHORNE, June 8—Said to be the first time in history, the annual meeting of Bucks County Firemen's Association will be held minus a parade.

The session is scheduled for eight o'clock Friday evening in Jesse W. Söby Post country club home, with Langhorne Fire Co. as host unit.

The main address of the evening will be delivered by Frank Deen, an officer of the Penna. Firemen's Association; former chief of Lancaster Fire Department; and former president of the Keystone Fire Chiefs' Association.

A memorial service will be one of the main items on the program, with memory of five Bucks County firemen who have died during the past year being honored. The speaker for the memorial service will be the Rev. William Coley Roeger, of Chalfont, chaplain of the association. The deceased firemen are: the Rev. Samuel E. Moyer, Perkasie; Howard W. Krupp, Chalfont; William M. Bussinger, Southampton; John Nagy, Danboro; and Edward Emig, Tinticum. Two soloists will provide numbers during the memorial service, these being Martha Stinson Deknatel, of Chalfont; and Robert Graham, Jr., of Line Lexington.

Election of officers is scheduled. The presiding officer for the business meeting will be President Ralph Wassner, Doylestown, who will call upon Bucks County Fire Marshal Robert Graham, of Chalfont, for his quarterly and annual reports of fires in the county.

In lieu of a parade this year tentative plans are being made for a field day at Chalfont, date to be announced.

Members of Langhorne Ladies Auxiliary will serve refreshments.

Pal-Mar Cut Rate Store Is Being Enlarged

A $25,000 rebuilding and remodeling program at the Pal-Mar Cut Rate store, Mill street, is now in progress, and when all operations are completed (by July 4th) the Mill street business district will boast another ultra modern business house.

Included in the work to be done will be the installation of an entire new fountain and back bar, with all new stainless steel luncheonette equipment and fixtures; new low bay display fixtures for cosmetics and other merchandise; complete new lighting fixtures throughout the store; enlarging the depth of the present store by 15 feet which will add an additional quarter morm in floor space; modern visible glass front of structural glass; and installation of a modern air conditioning system.

In connection with the remodeling program, Pal-Mar is promoting a rebuilding sale, announcement of which will be found in the advertising sections of today's Courier.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kiernan
(Distributed by International News Service)

Congress is having a little trouble getting up the perfect tax bill which will give both the people and the President more money to spend.

Mr. Truman is for any kind of tax cut which won't cut revenue which is the same as being for any kind of apple pie which doesn't contain apples.

The kind of tax cut which doesn't cut hasn't been invented yet . . . not even by the most willing administration economist.

But there are signs of government generosity, national and state . . . the federal tax on electric toasters may be lifted and Louisiana is getting ready to cut the sales tax on tombstones.

The slogan will be "why live taxed in any other state when you can get a tax free tombstone if you die in Louisiana?"

If this doesn't boost migration from the north, nothing will.

WEAPONS AND STRATEGY

Perhaps the atomic artillery shells and the atomic warheads on guided missiles disclosed by a Defense official were the new weapons hinted at by Defense Secretary Johnson in a Memorial Day speech. At any rate, the announcement was timed—whether by chance or by design—to make a great deal of difference in the attitude toward future defense strategy held by Uncle Sam's allies on the European continent.

Secretary of State Acheson told Congress the other day that major decisions on the strategy for defending western freedom had been reached at London. This strategy assigned air and sea roles to Britain, Canada and the United States, land roles to France, Italy and the Low Countries.

As Europe sees it, all the dirty work, the messy, bloody fighting, and the unpopular conscription, will be left to nations already bled white of their man-power during two recent wars. The impression is widespread that Secretary Acheson, by his utterances to Congress, has added to confusion and plunged the continental allies deeper into gloom.

Offensive weapons, such as artillery shells with atomic bursting charges, and guided missiles with atomic warheads, are also great defensive weapons against massed fronts such as the Soviet might put in the field should it decide to overrun Western Europe. New arms in the arsenal can possibly do away with the need for a mass army of the traditional type to defend Western Europe.

That seems to be the general idea Washington is now trying to get across to nations outside the iron curtain on the European continent.

THE GOOD LIFE

The state of Iowa, through an industrial development commission, is doing effective national advertising. It advises industry that it will make just as much money in Iowa and its personnel will live longer.

"The pace that kills is becoming faster every day," states this advertisement. "Congested metropolitan centers are sweeping tense and restless workers farther and farther away from the relaxing pleasures of spacious, quiet living. Even determined spending does not always buy relaxation for city dwellers. It often buys unrest."

Most Americans today are searching for the good life. They aren't finding it in the uncomfortably packed and congested cities. The politicians are trying to persuade them that the good life is in more reliance upon government programs. That isn't working so well either.

The good life is a combination of work and invigorating play in the clean out-of-doors. Midwesterners should hope, however, that the idea doesn't catch on to the point that the painful congestion is transferred to the prairies.

Experts say the spring season is disappearing, and eventually winter will be followed by summer. Apparently there is nothing amateur poets can do about it.

Bristol High School Graduates Roll Up Sleeves To Carve Careers

From the general course, Cornelia Carlton plans to become a commercial artist; Ruth Neal wants to become a telephone operator; while Thelma Tyler plans to be a dressmaker.

Another general graduate, Ann Sacks, hopes to become a professional singer. Barbara Schum is heading for office work, while Anna Marie Coyne says she's heading for the altar soon after graduation. Florence Fisher, Laura Geist, Rose Marie Rea, and Esther Stefani all intend to enter business or industry.

Some of the industrials have already decided what phase of industry they want to enter. Howard Asay says he's going to be a garage man, while Frank Barbeta is going to work for an oil burner service. Domenick Conti wants to become an automobile mechanic, and David Dunkelberger wants to be a machinist.

Two of the industrials will either find jobs or go into the service, according to what Allan Goulding and William Lake say. Others, like Joseph Cochran, Graceon White and August Wackes are planning to get an education in some trade. Karl Elenko may enter Stevens College, Hoboken, N. J.

David Lerner plans to work in his father's store after graduation, while Charles Milnor intends to work on a farm. Included among the other industrials who are planning to enter industry are: August Arnold, Victor Cauti, Richard Chase, William Condit, Frances Constantini, John Cotshott, Michael Downes, Robert Hardy, Richard Kilian, Henry Kornstedt, Michael Liberatore, William Luchinger, Joseph McClain, Walter Meyerle, Anthony Pfaffenrath, John Raro, Frank Reichelt, Charles Schade, Richard Schell, Howard Stroble, Francis Turek, Joseph Wallick and Herbert Weida.

Most of the commercial graduates are making plans of becoming members of the office forces of nearby industries. Franklin Mershon, however, is joining the navy, and Naomi Pollard will enter the women's branch of the Coast Guard, the Spars.

Dorothy Keers wants to become a laboratory technician. Jeanne Smoyer plans to be a telephone operator, and Alice Mitchell is going to be a receptionist. Harold Thompson is planning to leave the business field and go to work on a poultry and vegetable farm.

The other commercial graduates who plan to enter office work are: Marion Barth, Mary Ann Barton, Barbara Beffert, Philomena Bersant, Mary Lou Bock, Eva June Bolden, Lois Bolton, Ann Booz, John Burton, Joan Campbell, Dolores Carroll, Lawrence Crawford, Lucille Feole, Helen Ference, Gloria Ferraro, Loretta Florio, Frances Foster, Janice Gilton, Violet Heath, Carol Henderson, Josephine Lawton, Claire Linck, Elizabeth Marsaglia, Joan Marsh, Elizabeth Marshall, Mary Maurer, Helene Miller, Shirley Mount, Eleanor Oldham, Doris Paletta, Marian Petro, Joan Ratcliffe, Ruth Ritter, Elizabeth Raub, Lois Swangler, Elizabeth Torano, Frances Torano, Josephine Tosti, Joan Wallace, Rosemarie Welker, Sarah Woolvin and Catherine Zobel.

Martin Braam is undecided and Frank Wackes is planning to take a position with a Bristol industry.

Another House of the Month

FLOOR PLAN

Copyright Monthly Small House Club, Inc.

This delightful house is a perfect square with just enough break in the roof line to present an interesting exterior. The floor plan is ideal with the two bedrooms and bath forming the right section and the living room stretching across the remainder of the front with kitchen and dinette directly behind it. The fireplace, centered along the left wall, permits numerous arrangements of furniture. The service entry is not only handy to the kitchen and garage but leads directly to the basement stairway. Though containing five rooms and a full basement, provision is made in the plans for an additional bedroom in the attic.

A&P's Wonderful Way Of Selling Fresh Fruits And Vegetables

All fruits and vegetables are carefully inspected when they arrive at your A&P Super Market and several times a day thereafter. Although still wholesome, any that don't meet A&P's high standards are immediately reduced in price and put on a "Quick-Sale" table. Thus, top-grade fruits and vegetables in top condition are the only kind ever included in A&P's regular produce displays.

Customers' Corner

Have you noticed that the price is plainly marked on every item you buy in your A&P? That's done to help us make sure you will be charged the correct price.

It also gives you a chance to check your bill and see that we haven't made a mistake. If you should ever find any difference between the price marked on the item and the price you paid, please let us know.

BUCKS COUNTY IS INTERESTING:

Places to Which One Can Motor When the Wanderlust Strikes — Become Acquainted With Historical and Scenic Spots Right Here Close at Home.

Historian Sir George Trevelyan later wrote of the event, "whether so small a number of men ever employed so short a space of time with greater and more lasting results upon the history of the world."

On both sides of the Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have established memorial parks and several impressive monuments have been erected. On the embarkation spot the Bucks County Historical Society has set up "an appropriate historical" shrine where George Washington and his broken army, after eluding the pursuit of their victorious enemy, recrossed the river from Pennsylvania to New Jersey, under most trying conditions, in a desperate effort to rescue from utter collapse the fading cause of liberty. Close by is the tribute erected in 1916 by the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America.

Within the area of Washington Crossing, one of 13 state parks, lie many historical buildings, including the Old McKonkey Ferry Inn, restored to its colonial appearance. About 4½ miles north of the Inn is Jericho Creek, which marks the northern boundary of William Penn's first purchase from the Indians on July 15, 1682.

Rising 310 feet above River Road four miles past Washington Crossing is Bowman's Hill, lookout post for Revolutionary sentinels. The state has erected a 125-foot tower on the hill which affords a magnificent view of the river valley below. An old mill which ground grain for the colonial army has been restored and is located nearby, as is the Thompson House, headquarters for Lord Sterling. A picnic area is available on the hill.

On the northern slope of Bowman's Hill is the State Wildflower Preserve, which offers at this time of year a beautiful display of almost every type shrub, fern or wildflower.

that grows in Pennsylvania. Legends of pirate gold still persist around Bowman's Hill, for it was rumored that a Dr. John Bowman, cohort of the fabulous Captain Kidd, hid huge sums of stolen treasure there.

Before reaching New Hope one can see Malta Island in the Delaware river, where the boats that were used in the famous Trenton attack, were hidden until the assault began.

At New Hope traces of the ferry that carried Washington and his men between New Jersey and Pennsylvania can still be found. There, before the Trenton attack, fortifications manned by Generals Mercer and DeFormoy set back a British attempt to cross the river and cut off the colonial troops.

Also to be seen at New Hope is beautiful Parry mansion, built in 1784 and still resplendent in its colonial majesty, and the old grist mill which has been turned into the Bucks County Playhouse, an important stop on the summer grease-paint circuit.

NEWPORTVILLE

The Ladies Auxiliary of Newportville Fire Company will conduct a strawberry festival on Saturday from four to six p. m., in the station.

Reception Tendered To Pastor and His Fiancee

HULMEVILLE, June 8—A reception was tendered the Rev. Edward Stiebs, newly-appointed pastor of Neshaminy Methodist Church, and his fiancée, Miss Ruth Hampp, of Philadelphia, last evening. Eighty gathered in the church for the affair.

Program numbers were announced by George Fettes, of Pennel, church lay leader. He called upon the Rev. Samuel Gaskell, pastor of Tullytown Methodist Church; and the Rev. Horace H. Hoffman, pastor of Langhorne Methodist Church, for greetings to the new pastor. The Rev. Mr. Gaskell, after welcoming the Rev. Mr. Stiebs to Bucks County, gave this advice: "Preach the Word—It's the Word of our God that shall live forever." The Rev. Mr. Hoffman informed the new appointee that the local church has a "live and loyal" group to assist him.

Members of the official board of the church were introduced; as were also superintendent of the Sunday School, C. Wesley Haefner, and assistant, Kenneth Comly, of Pennel. Welcome on behalf of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was expressed by the president, Miss Elma E. Haefner, who introduced the following society officers: Miss Marie Hanson, Miss Grace H. Lillick, Mrs. William Gotthardt, Mrs. John Cerin, also chairman of the parsonage committee, Mrs. Frank Harper, Bensalem township.

Music for the evening included the following numbers: "He Smiled on Me" (O'Hara), adult choir, accompanied by Miss Clara L. Hillick; "Thanks be to God", youth choir, accompanied by Miss Hanson and directed by Miss Adeline E. Reetz; vocal duet, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee", Miss Reetz and Mrs. Elwyn Neitzel, song, junior department of Sunday School, accompanied Mrs. Gotthardt; selection, "Stranger on Galilee", youth choir; cornet solo,

"Two Friends," David Fettes, with Mrs. George Fettes at the piano. A reading "When the Pastor Comes to Tea" was given by Carol Jean Rongley.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served in Wesley hall by members of the W. S. C. S.

Your Commentator

By Jim Larkin

June, known as the month of young buds and blooms, is harvest time also, it can be stated; For smart girls then reap a lush crop (of grooms) By these girls long carefully cultivated.

MEN OF MERIT

To make a successful writer it seems to take the sort of early life that was lived by Mackinlay Kantor, born in Webster City, Iowa, in 1904. Kantor experienced a most versatile boyhood and young manhood, which included carrying papers, working as an office boy in Chicago, working with a highway commission, laboring, rambling, and, with his mother, editing the Webster City newspaper. Meanwhile he was getting formal education in installments. A born writer, his career was settled when he won a prize of $50, offered by a Des Moines newspaper in a short story contest. Subsequently he has won wide success for his dozens of books and short stories.

Here is the reason that I nominate Mackinlay Kantor as a real "Man of Merit": These days I find myself reading through published fiction in much of which there seems to be no plot, no story, no nothing. But when I read a Kantor tale, I am intrigued by a clever plot, skillfully and smoothly worked out to a natural climax. It is a story; I am rewarded for time spent in reading it; I am entertained. And I am envious, too. I wish that I (and a lot of others who claim to be writers) could write like that boy from Webster City.

DEFINITIONS IN RHYME

To be a true ASCETIC must be a severe trait, For he lives a solitary, solemn life of self-denial.

Better ABJURE bad habits before it is too late; Renounce, reject, abandon, quit, or repudiate.

Keep basement stairs in good repair. Such stairs should also have secure hand-rails.

Note to prospective June bridal couples: Most people wish you happiness—until your beribboned cars rush around town with horns blasting. Then these same people want to follow the old custom of throwing shoes at you—but with their feet in them.

It has been determined that the temperature of the sun is one million degrees. And in the days before our prodigal government taught us to think in billions, this would have seemed hot.

VIDEO MOOCHER'S PROBLEM Shall I expend for Television The money paid me for my labors?

Or may it be the smart decision To still view sets owned by my neighbors?

Thought for parents of 'teen-agers: Nearly one in every three accidents involves a driver under 25 years of age. Sixteen-year-olds have nine times as many accidents as persons of forty-five to fifty. Teach those kids the necessity of safe driving.

Remember: Readers' comments always welcome. Address: Jim Larkin, 757 No. Broadway, Milwaukee 2, Wis.

brated by Marie V. Welsh newly-elected president, who will be installed within a fortnight; Ethel Fugit, Hazel Tobias and Dorothy T. Kraft.

Past President Verna McClary and Miss Lillian V. Kelley received the club prizes.

Installation of officers will be held June 19, when President Stover will turn the gavel over to Miss Welsh.

Most of the time at the meeting of Newtown borough council, Monday evening, was devoted to the transaction of routine business, including the reports of committee chairmen.

Bids for stone and oil for the improvements of the streets were awarded. The contract for the oil went to the Kopper Company, Pittsburgh, which has branch offices in Norristown, and the contract for the stone was awarded Harry L. White.

The street committee reported general work done. This included patching of the streets and mowing the grass on the banks of the street. This committee was commended for the excellent work it did in removing the trees in front of the Council chamber.

EDDINGTON

Bible Class No. 1, Eddington Presbyterian Church, held a picnic at the home of Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Newportville, on Tuesday. Tables were set on the lawn. A cameo pin was presented to Mrs. A. Kurtz King, who will make her residence in Deep River, Conn. Others present: Miss Reba Ellis, Mrs. Herman Denner, Mrs. Yeager, Mrs. David Lamb, Mrs. Arthur Wilkinson, Mrs. Frank Clauser, Mrs. Frank Simons, Mrs. Albert Smith, Miss Isabelle Jones, Mrs. Delbert Wade, Mrs. Donald Worrell, Mrs. J. Boughner. Nine children of the members were also present.

Urges 2 Officers In Speeding Cases

second officer. The arrest was made about one and one-half miles south of Quakertown. The officer clocked Spagolio, he said, for about a mile. "The court does not like this business of following a person a comparatively short distance and then making an arrest for speeding," Judge Keller remarked.

"Everybody speeds up at times; if they continue to drive fast, yes, bring them in. There was no reckless driving in this case."

Robert Thomas, Shenandoah, a garage owner, who was a passenger with Spagolio, said that he watched the defendant's speedometer and that in his estimation Spagolio at no time drove over 50 miles per hour. He said that he later tested Spagolio's speedometer and found that it registered 4 miles per hour fast.

"Again I say, I do not like the idea of one officer making a speeding arrest for like in this case, there is usually two against one," Judge Keller commented, but he adjudged Spagolio guilty and directed him to pay $10 and costs.

District Attorney William S. Curtin said that he would advise the State Police to use two officers in speeding arrests.

HERE'S where you come into your own.

For this roomy six-passenger Sedanet is the lowest-priced family-model Buick and the easiest to buy.

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

But it has all the basic qualities that make every Buick a standout.

Unmistakable smartness, for instance, in its tapering fenders and money-saving Multi-Guard forefront.

A bonnet full of Fireball straight-eight power that spells thrills with real thrills.

Matchless Buick ride compounded of coil springs on all four wheels, ride-steadying torque-tube, low-pressure tires and Safety-Ride rims.

You can even have Dynaflo Drive*

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

if you like—the first non-shifting transmission in which oil does it all.

But here's the point:

It doesn't cost a cent—doesn't obligate you in any way—to check all this—to try this Buick out. All you have to do is ask—and your Buick dealer will sit you behind the wheel—let you put this traveler through its paces—show you precisely how little it will cost you to step up to a Buick.

You'll never know what you are missing until you try a Buick. Come in, won't you—right away?

Today's Quiet Moment

By Edwin L. Thomas
Pastor
Newport Rd. Community Chapel

We thank Thee, O Lord, that Thou hast drawn near to us, for we come to Thee with many requests, but most of all we need Thee, indeed, we need Thee every moment of every day. We need to know the love that Thou hast for us, for while we were yet sinners, Jesus Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by His Blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. Help us, we pray to find real joy and blessing in the great love that God has for us through His dear Son, our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

CAUTI DRIVES IN SIX RUNS TO LEAD JEFFERSON TO WIN

"Vic" Cauti drove in six runs last evening to lead Jefferson A. C. to a victory over the Auto Boys team last evening on Memorial Park field in a Bristol Softball League tilt. Final score was 13-1.

The triumph enabled Jefferson to leap back into first place in the loop. The loss, the sixth straight for Auto Boys, dropped them deeper into the cellar.

Cauti drove in his sextet of runs with three singles. He also dented home plate himself three times to be responsible for nine tallies.

"Johnny" Ciambelli was the winning moundsman, permitting the Mill street aggregation but five hits. Ciambelli had a shutout until the final frame when "Charlie" Simmons and "Charlie" Kohler singled and VanAken sent a long fly to right.

"Johnny" Dowd was the losing hurler. He was replaced by "Reggie" Gerome in the fourth canto.

RESCHEDULED GAME

The Bristol Softball League game between Fifth Ward and Fire Company No. 1 has been re-scheduled for Friday evening on Leedom's field. The game was originally scheduled for May 29th but called due to rain.

HULMEVILLE

Miss Joan Schneider and Wayne Schneider, students at West Chester State Teachers College, are spending the summer vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schneider.

Examinations for pupils in all grades, one to six, will be held in Hulmeville school next Monday and Tuesday. There will be no sessions of school on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, but on Friday, June 16th, pupils will receive their report cards during the morning. That will be the final day of school. A roller skating party is arranged for girls and boys of grades four, five and six on Friday, June 9th, at Hulmeville Park, principal Frank Binder announces.

The week-end was spent by Mrs. George Spill, Hulmeville, and Mrs. Eleanor Hallock, West Bristol, visiting relatives at Oradell, N. Y.

Frank Harper, Jr., of Bensalem township, is improved after being ill for several days.

HUNTER-WILSON WINS OVER HUNTER, 4 TO 1

"Ed" Capriotti's home run in the first inning gave Hunter-Wilson a 4-1 victory over Hunter's last evening in a Bristol Industrial Softball League contest on the former's field.

Capriotti's four-base blow came after Barton had walked and Gotwald hit safely.

The distillery workers had eight hits while Hunter's made five safe blows. The only player to get more than one blow was Gene Mount who had a single and double for the winners.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today! ENTRY IN SATURDAY'S HARNESS MEET

Brady L. Bryner, chairman of the committee of the Kiwanis Club of Jenkintown sponsoring harness races at Huntingdon Valley Raceway Saturday, is shown at a recent workout with his entry, "Santa Guy," with his son, Brady Bryner, Jr., as driver. The track is on County Line road, east of Justa Farm.

Saturday at two p. m., the popular sport of harness horse racing will be the feature of a meet sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Jenkintown in conjunction with the Huntingdon Valley Riders and Drivers Association.

An outstanding card of well known horses and owners are expected to make this a very popular meet with a large attendance. Among the famous entries will be Oscar Hunt's "Princess Ward" who holds the track record at Paulsboro, N. J. The sensational fourteen year old driver, Robert Pyle, will also be riding a sulky.

This young driver has recently set three track records at events in the East. "Tom Manning," owned and driven by Larry Glenn, of Bryn Athyn, and "Dutch Master," owned and driven by William Anglemeyer, of Huntingdon Valley, are other entries favored because of their placing in recent events.

The meet will be held at the new Huntingdon Valley Raceway located on County Line road between Southampton and Somerton near the Sunset Memorial Park. This new track has excellent facilities for spectators including ample free parking.

Brady L. Bryner, Chairman of the Kiwanis Committee, said: "A large crowd is expected at this meet as harness racing has always been very popular in this area. The Kiwanis Club is proud to sponsor this event which is considered one of the cleanest of sports. Our work for underprivileged children will be supported by a part of the proceeds from this event and it is hoped that its success will make this an annual event."

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By Al Spivak
(L. N. S. Penna. Farm Editor)
HARRISBURG, June 8—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State College Agricultural Experiment Station has listed six strains of tobacco for certification in Pennsylvania.

First such list ever approved by the station, the strains include Swarr - Hibshman, Greider, Connecticut Broadleaf, Red Rose, Swarr and Holbein.

Foundation seed was produced last season on farms of the tobacco experimental laboratory in Lancaster county.

Tobacco plantings in Lancaster county have been estimated by tobacco men at 20 per cent above last year.

Dissatisfaction among some farmers with a dull potato market is to blame with many potatoes replacing plantings with tobacco.

Fear that expanded acreage of tobacco will hurt the 1950 market has been expressed in some quarters.

State Milk Control Commission experts estimate that Pennsylvania milk dealers lose approximately $110,000 a year in unused butterfat.

John S. Pfautz, Director of the Commission's Bureau of Accounts and Statistics, says that during 1948 there were 52,329 dairy farmers in Pennsylvania who shipped 4,263,136,360 pounds of fluid milk to 1,031 dairy plants located within the State.

"These producers have a daily concern with butterfat as it relates to the production of milk and the values they receive," Pfautz said.

During 1948 he added, there were about 977 milk dealers in the State, exclusive of producer-distributors who purchased milk from 46,097 dairy farmers, Pfautz said.

"If you value the 112,139 pounds of butterfat lost by 118 of these dealers each month at the present support price of butter at 74 cents a pound this would equal a cost of $90,382 a month," he said.

State bee inspectors have started checking hives for presence of disease, according to Dr. Thomas L. Guyton, Director of the State Agriculture Department's Bureau of Plant Industry.

Beekeepers can co-operate to establish a record number of apiary inspections this year, Guyton said.

Most 1950 inspections will be in western counties, he said, under a system of rechecking hives every second year. Last year bees in all but two counties east of the Susquehanna River were inspected.

Beekeepers were advised to house colonies in hives equipped with frames that can be removed easily by the inspectors.

Co-operation of beekeepers in eliminating box and cross comb hives has reduced bee diseases considerably, Guyton said. The law forbids maintenance of bees in old boxes of woven straw skeps.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Hypocrisy and The FEPC

Washington, June 8. AN incontestable fact about politics in this country—and, probably, in any country—is that lying and hypocrisy steadily increase as the voting population grows. The larger the vote, the more fruitful the field for the demagogues and fakirs. As the electorate expands, the greater the percentage of ignorance, the smaller that of intelligence.

BEYOND dispute, this is the basic reason for the cheapening of our public service during the last two decades in which the vote in presidential elections has gone from 38,000,000 in 1912 to 49,000,000 in 1948. The estimate for 1952 is approximately 55,000,000. Few will dispute that in those years, from the White House down, ethical standards have been lowered while the intellectual and moral inadequacy of our public representatives has reached an all-time high. This, of course, is a direct reflection of a voting population not only larger and more gullible than ever before but so much less sensitive to shock as to raise doubt whether the capacity for effective public indignation has not really been lost.

PERHAPS the most convincing illustration of the situation is in the so-called civil-rights program of Mr. Truman, the chief feature of which is the fair employment practices proposal now pending in the Senate. It is the simple truth that among the proponents of this legislation there is more humbug and less sincerity than about any other proposal that has been before Congress in many years. The whole issue reeks with false pretense and sordid politics. Of course, some of its advocates are sincere. Some really believe that the FEPC bill presents a great principle. And there are certain zealots and crusaders who regard it as embodying the noble cause of abolishing racial discrimination and segregation.

BUT, with rare exceptions, not so much as a trace of sincerity on this issue exists among the politicians in either party. With these, it is wholly a matter of politics. There is and has been for fourteen years a contest between the parties to hold the Negro vote in the ten states of the North where it holds the balance of power. Particularly, is this true of the Democratic party, which since 1936 has become more or less dependent on this vote in most of these States and which only began to be interested in the Negro after 1936, when, for the first time, it succeeded in weaning away from the Republicans a large percentage of the Negro vote which had been their basic asset since the Civil War.

THE story of how this was done has been told before, but the present situation makes it worth briefly repeating. In 1934, ex-Senator Guffy, of Pennsylvania, sold the idea to Mr. James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, that with more patronage for the Negro he could carry Pennsylvania. Mr. Farley felt that if this could be done in that State it could be done in others. He and Senator Guffy sold the idea to Mr. Roosevelt, who enthusiastically co-operated. The start was made by naming a Negro editor from Pittsburgh as an Assistant Attorney General, the highest public office ever held by a Negro. This was followed by an avalanche of Negro appointments to a large variety of Federal jobs, care being taken that the recipients were from the states where the Negro vote is large.

IN the 1936 campaign, the astute Mr. Farley supplemented this by putting on the committee pay roll a large number of Negro preachers, teachers, deacons and others more or less oratorical who were sent through the ten states to spread the gospel that Roosevelt and the New Deal were the true friends of the Negro. As a result of that campaign, more than 90 per cent of the heretofore solidly Republican Negro vote was transferred to the Democrats—and most of it is still Democratic. With considerable reason, Mr. Farley considers this the greatest political coup in our history. Of course, he admits it could not have been done without the powerful aid of Harry Hopkins and his WPA. Also the personal popularity and prestige of Mrs. Roosevelt with the Negroes were of great help. Hundreds of thousands of pictures of her taken with male and female Negro students were distributed in places where they would do the most good.

—O—

THERE was not an ounce of principle or sentiment in the whole performance. It was a coldly calculated and cleverly executed political plan. Ever since the Democrats have coddled, cuddled and cajoled the Negro vote in every possible way. The climax came in the 1948 convention when the civil-rights plank, upon which the FEPC is based, was adopted. Now so deeply committed that, despite the determined revolt in the South, Administration leaders cannot let go without risking loss of a vote that has become vital. Most of them have no interest, belief in or liking for the bill. Most of them will be glad to see it beaten so long as the Negro leaders do not blame them. Most of them know it cannot be enforced if enacted. This is the truth about the FEPC. This is why the breast-beating oratory of its advocates is so obviously phony. This is why their talk of principles, morality and the Constitution is so revolting.

Try to Avoid a Double Chin

Courtesy Frances Denney
Don't see double when it comes to your chin line, lady. Take care! One good help in holding that line is a chin strap.

By HELEN FOLLETT

VARIOUS things besides a too-rich diet and a tendency to accumulate weight can be responsible for the appearance of an extra chin, for which no woman alive has any use whatsoever and which she hates with a deadly emotion. Chief among these is the habit of sleeping on a high pillow. Keeping the head lowered when reading or sewing is a mistake. These habits mean that the muscles that extend along the jaw line and down over the throat lose tone. On unused muscles fat cells take lodgings. Once there, they multiply.

Local treatment will mold two chins into one, divorce them completely. This presto-change act is being performed in beauty shops throughout the land.

Heavy Cream

spread a heavy cream over a clean skin surface. Stroke from chin tip to ear lobes. Rub up and down on the throat. Pick up the undersung tissues, roll them between thumb and first finger; this movement will dissolve the fat cells. Have an ice rub, and apply an astringent to take up the slack. A chin strap will help, too.

Certain exercises will hasten this remodeling project. Tense the neck muscles, move the head backward against the muscle resistance as far as possible; second movement, send the head forward until the chin touches the chest. Repeat.

Tensing the muscles, move the head to the right as far as you can, then lower your chin to touch your shoulder. Send the head to the left, touch the left shoulder and repeat. These movements should be done slowly with plenty of muscle pull.

Lie flat on the floor, face downward, arms at the sides. Lift your head, send it as far back as you can. Then turn it from side to side.

But don't forget the creaming and pinching of the flesh. Devote five minutes to that good looks task and the extra chin will gradually do a disappearing act.

MARI SETS HIS BATTING AVERAGE AT OVER .600

"Lou" Mari, sensational hitting third-sacker for St. Ann's, set his batting average to over the .600 mark last evening as he collected four for four in the St. Ann's A. A. one-sided 16-4 win over West Trenton last evening in a Trenton Industrial League tilt on Memorial Park baseball field.

In running rough-shod over the Jersey team, the "Saints" had a total of 11 hits and took advantage of seven West Trenton errors to pile up the sixteen markers.

Mari went into the tilt with a .560 mark and boosted it by his four singles and a pass. He is now leading the hitters of the Trenton loop. Mari scored three runs in the tilt and drove in four.

"Bill" Coates started on the hill for St. Ann's and was relieved by Paul Leighton in the second. The four runs scored by the Trenton contingent were charged to Coates. West Trenton made but three hits off Leighton, two of them were made by Woodenschik, a double and triple.

"Joie" Elmer, St. Ann's catcher, clouted a home run in the first inning with two on base. Newman had attempted to make a shoe-string catch of his liner and missed. Elmer's hit in the fourth scored Bert Barbetta who had lambasted a triple to give the Bristol back-stopper four runs batted in for the evening.

It was the seventh win of the campaign for the "Saints" who have been beaten but once.
